Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/767,109	Applicant(s) BELSON ET AL.
	Examiner Matthew J. Kasztejna	Art Unit 3739

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Notice of Amendment

In response to the amendment filed on May 16, 2007, amended claims 24-26; canceled claims 1-23 and new claims 27-44 are acknowledged. The following new grounds of rejection are set forth:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 24-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,837,846 to Jaffe et al.

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

In regards to claims 24-27 and 31-32, Jaffe et al. disclose a method of treating a region of tissue within body cavity, comprising: advancing an elongate body into the cavity, the elongate body having an automatically controllable proximal portion and a selectively steerable distal portion 84; selectively steering the selectively steerable distal portion to assume a selected curve along a desired path within the body; and further advancing the elongate body through the cavity and towards the region of tissue to be treated while controlling the automatically controllable proximal portion 86 the elongate body with an electronic motion controller 122 to assume the selected curve of the selectively steerable distal portion (see Figs. 4-5 and Col. 6, Lines 1-55). In regard to the apparatus being introduced into a cranial cavity, a thoracic cavity and/or a peritoneal cavity, Jaffe et al. disclose that it is well known within the art that endoscopes are used for visualizing the interior of a patient's body and can be used in a variety of different diagnostic and interventional procedures (see Col. 1, Lines 23-27 and 62-67).

In regards to claims 28-30, Jaffe et al. disclose a method of treating a region of tissue within body cavity, further comprising creating an incision prior to advancing the elongate device through the incision (see Col. 1, Lines 23-67). It is well known within the art of thoracoscopy and laparoscopy to make an insertion to gain access to the interior of the body.

In regards to claims 33-41, Jaffe et al. disclose a method of treating a region of tissue within body cavity, further comprising treating the region of tissue and delivering an instrument to the region of tissue through the elongate body (see Fig. 2 and Col. 7, Lines 43-46, Col. 8, Lines 49-52 and Col. 10, Lines 18-20).

In regards to claims 42-44, Jaffe et al. disclose a method of treating a region of tissue within body cavity, wherein selectively steering comprises selecting the curve with reduces contact with the tissue and avoiding contact with anatomical structures with the body (see Figs. 11a-e and Col. 9, Lines 53-67).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 24-44 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
